Bobbitt on the Bible.

The Bible (from biblos) means the book; that is the Book of books. Bible comprehends the Old and New Testament. The Old Testament contains the stern commands of a severe father; the New Testament the gentle and milder directions and persuasions of a friend and companion, who partook of our nature and temptations, our mortal sufferings. But the last was given, not to destroy but to soften and fulfill the former.

"Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal," and so on, with the whole decalogue, remain in as full force and effect after the new dispensation, as when they were thundered by God Almighty himself from the lofty, smoking summit of Mount Sinai. The commands of the whole Bible, from Genesis to Revelations, points out to man the pathway through life, of flowery fields of peace and happiness and after securing to man here below earthly happiness, is a sure and direct passport to the gate of the Eternal City and the observance of those precepts will insure him a happy and triumphant entrance there.

My object in writing these lines is to induce all the little boys and girls and grown up people too, to resolve to commit a verse a day in the Old and New Testament. This will be 730 a year, and it will soon begin to tell. While in the Legislature of Kentucky in the session of 1885-86, I resolved to commit a verse a day in each book. By this slow and tedious process (which grew to be the greatest pleasure of the day.) I went through Genesis, which means beginning, through Exodus, which means going out, the children of Israel going out of Egypt into the land of Canaan; Leviticus, which has reference to the Levites, the priests; Numbers, 606,000 fighting men; Deuteronomy (the law of God.) The five books constitute the Pentateuch, the five books of Moses. In the New Testament I went through Matthew, Mark, Luke, John, Acts, Romans and so on, to the end of Revelations. This took 22 years. I concluded the New Testament about two months ago and turned back and commenced Matthew again. This time I can commit as I run. Now, I want all the little boys and girls and grown up people to commence and do as I have done. It will make you better men and women and afford pleasure and furnish you with an inexhaustible reservoir of information through all the walks of life, and obedience to those divine precepts will finally lead you to the Elysian fields of a celestial home, eternal in the heavens not made with hands.

FONTAINE FOX BOBBITT.

A week's educational revival, such as have been held so successfully in a number of States, is being arranged for Kentucky by State Superintendent J. G. Crabbe. Six prominent educators from States and about 25 interested in the cause from this State will take the stump in a whirlwind campaign which will begin Nov. 29, and wind up Dec. 8. This move is part of the plan of the Southern Educational Board, headed by R. C. Ogden, of New York, for the awakening of the renewed interest in the cause of education in the Southern States. It is expected that this will be the biggest thing along educational lines ever attempted in Kentucky. The cost is estimated at about $1,500.

Seven Years of Proof.

"I have had seven years of proof that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best medicine to take for coughs and colds and for every diseased condition of throat, chest or lungs," says W. V. Henry, of Panama, Mo. The world has had 38 years of proof that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best remedy for coughs and colds, la grippe, asthma, hay fever, bronchitis, hemorrhage of the lungs, and the early stages of consumption. Its timely use always prevents the development of pneumonia sold under guarantee at Penny's Drug Store, 50c. and $1. Trial bottle free.

A Mexico City dispatch says: After an outlay of between $100,000 and $500,000 in a vain endeavor to control the burning Dos Bocas oil wells, Pearson & Sons have decided to abandon the oil wells altogether. The oil is flowing at the rate of 14,000,000 gallons a day. Millions of dollars have been lost as a result of the fire, two men have been suffocated by the gases and 50 soldiers used in fighting the fire and later to build an embankment to hold the oil, are in the hospital as a result of poisonous gases. Vegetation for miles around has been destroyed and many families in the neighborhood are suffering from swollen limbs.

Foley's Honey and Tar clears the air passages stops the irritation in the throat, soothes the inflamed membranes, and the most obstinate cough disappears. Sore and inflamed lungs are healed and strengthened, and the cold is expelled from the system. New Stanford Drug Co.

KINGSVILLE.

The Kingsville Tent of Maccabees will hold their regular meeting Saturday night, Nov. 14.

Rev. Elbert E. Young came home Nov. 2 to vote the Prohibition ticket. Mr. Young is preaching for a circuit in Lee county.

Major D. Smith has rented the Hart hotel and took possession Nov. 1. Major proposes to give his customers the best that is going. Give him a trial if you want a square meal.

The election is over, and Taft is elected. One of our merchants was asked if there was an election here for president on Nov. 3. He replied, "yes, the Republicans had one; we're going to have ours next time."

The railroad is building a new water tank here. Considerable work has been done on the tunnel recently. Dame Rumor says that the company will build a set of coal shutters here before many more moons wax and wane.

Dan Gooch is building a new barn. The drouth has been quite severe here. Forest fires have done considerable damage just west of here. The good rain on Tuesday answered the wishes and probably the prayers of many suffering farmers.

Attorneys W. S. Burch and T. J. Hill attended court here Saturday. Squire D. R. Adams presided. A party from the Waynesburg section was fined $25 and cost for breach of the peace. The case of Gooch vs Lee, known as the "pig trial," brought quite a number of women to the court room. Lee was dismissed.

Mr. J. L. Johnson continues very sick. His daughter, Miss Belle Johnson, arrived Sunday from Hood River, Oregon, to be at the bedside of her father. Ed Rigney has been working as operator at Eubanks for the past few weeks. Walter Debord, of Somerset, representing The Cumberland Grocery Co., was here Friday and Saturday.

Judge Edwin Kemper and wife, of Cincinnati, stopped here for a few days on their return home from a Southern visit. He owns some property near here. Dr. and Mrs. C. M. Thompson and daughter, Miss Grace, spent a few days in Cincinnati. Mrs. Thompson returned with a nice line of Fall and Winter millinery. Get her prices on stylish hats.

There is a revival in progress at the Methodist church. Rev. Haggard, the pastor, is being assisted by Rev. Elbert E. Young. Much enthusiasm is manifested and the night services, especially, are well attended. Services begin at 6:30 and the house is crowded before the hour arrives. Rev. Haggard has recently moved his family into the Methodist parsonage here. He comes to us from Grant county.

Mrs. Joe Jenkins died suddenly at her home near here Saturday afternoon. She was 38 years of age and was in apparently good health. She was preparing supper for the family when a sharp pain was felt in the left side of her chest. She started across the room and immediately began to sink. Members of the family assisted her to a couch where she expired within 30 minutes. The remains were laid to rest Monday at 10 o'clock with funeral services at the Pleasant Point Baptist church. She leaves a husband and eight children, the youngest of which is less than a year old. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved family.

If you suffer from constipation and liver trouble Foley's Orino Laxative will cure you permanently by stimulating the digestive organs so they will act naturally. Foley's Orino Laxative does not gripe, is pleasant to take and you do not have to take laxatives continually after taking Orino. New Stanford Drug Co.

HUSTONVILLE.

The children of the Baptist Sunday school will give a candy pulling in the D. S. Carpenter flats this Friday afternoon, from 3 to 10 o'clock. All are cordially invited.

Watched Fifteen Years.

"For fifteen years I have watched the working of Bucklen's Arnica Salve; and it has never failed to cure any sore, boil, ulcer or burn to which it was applied. It has saved us many a doctor bill," says A. F. Hardy, of East Wilton, Maine. 25c. at Penny's Drug Store.

If we believe all we hear, the Standard Oil Company hasn't a friend in the world and 86,000,000 enemies in this country. Yet it manages to pay dividends right along.—Philadelphia Record.

More than 25,000 employees of the Pennsylvania railroad have been instructed in first aid to the injured at the company's expense.

As a result of an alleged incendiary fire destroying the drug store and office of Dr. W. B. McClure at Sherburne, one man is under arrest, another is probably fatally stabbed, and the whole community is wrought up over the affair.

In a drunken frenzy, Jacob Sikkema, aged 32, shot his wife, Cora, twice at their home at Grand Rapids, Mich., and then shot himself through the head, causing instant death. A six-weeks-old baby in the room was unharmed. The woman has slight chances to recover.

Initial steps for the construction of another monster battleship for the American navy were taken when proposals for its construction were opened at the Navy Department. This will be known as battleship No. 31, and already has been designated by the President to be called the Utah.

Richard J. Pollard was arrested at St. Louis for participating in the riders' raid at Hopkinsville last Spring on information furnished by Mrs. Ella Lovelace, a roominghouse keeper, formerly of Hopkinsville. She told the police that Pollard had confessed to playing a part in the famous raid in which two men were killed and $200,000 worth of property destroyed.

In the Federal Court of Appeals at Chicago the petition of the Government for a rehearing of the case in which the Circuit Court of appeals reversed the trial court in fining the Standard Oil Company of Indiana $29,240,000 for alleged rebating, was denied. The Government will now attempt to bring the whole matter before the Supreme Court of the United States.

Charles Knowles, with his neck wrenched and spine injured; Neil Hill with his left leg broken and severe contusions of the body; Arthur Priestner, with his neck twisted, his face cut and his body bruised, members of the Hollywood School foot ball team, are all three in a serious condition in one ward of the California Hospital at Los Angeles as a result of the game played with Pasadena High School.

The no-money, no-whisky call for a democratic primary in Trimble county, which came off on the 7th, was knocked into a cocked hat. Notwithstanding the candidates were required to take an iron-clad oath with hand on Bible and this oath applied to the relatives of candidates, there was more drunkenness than at any election since the first call of this kind. It is now up to the county democratic committee to investigate, which the law-abiding citizens are anxiously awaiting.

E. M. Morgan, postmaster of New York City, was shot and seriously wounded in the abdomen by Eric Mackey, who committed suicide as soon as he saw his victim fall. The postmaster's life was saved by his 14-year-old daughter, who was with him and who knocked the would-be assassin's pistol aside. Mackey left a letter in which he said that powerful men had control of affairs and he had picked Morgan as the man who had done the greatest injury to him personally. Mackey shot a man in Massachusetts several years ago and was sent to an insane asylum, from which he escaped.

LANCASTER.

Circuit court convenes Monday-week. The dockets, both civil and criminal, are very light.

There isn't enough water in Lancaster to make a good toddy, or sufficient to conduct a Presbyterian baby-sprinkling.

Mr. J. F. Dickerson, the well-known traveling man, has bought of Mr. Wm. Sebastian the latter's residence on Paulding street, price $2,200.

Lancaster friends extend deep sympathy to Mr. J. R. Harris, in the loss of his estimable wife. Mr. Harris was born and reared in Lancaster.

Sam B. Jennings, who was sent to the penitentiary 14 months ago for killing Mace Miller, has been paroled and returned home. His many friends are glad to learn of this.

The Daughters of the Confederacy met Monday and elected officers. The local organization is in splendid condition, and the meetings prove both entertaining and instructive.

Mias Polly Traylor is conducting a large class in dancing in this city. She is very popular with our people, her winning manners and many other charms making friends of all who meet her.

Old citizens say Garrard county never before experienced such a drouth as the one now causing so much trouble. It is estimated that not more than a hundred families escaped having to haul water.

Candidates for nominations to be made at the Democratic primary are working like Trojans, and the dear voter is besieged on all hands. The result will be close and friends of all are doing some tall hustling.

After a brief shut-down, by reason of lack of water, the electric light plant resumed business Wednesday night. Absence of the great convenience was very annoying, and the people now appreciate the service more than ever. The flour mills have also resumed business.

The meeting of the Woman's Club, to have been held this week, was postponed until next Wednesday, at the Presbyterian church. The subject for discussion is "Japan's Phenomenal Success," with Mrs. W. I. Williams and Miss Margaret Mount as leaders and Miss Martha Gill as hostess.

Another meeting of the stockholders in the opera house project will be held at office of Garrard Bank & Trust Co., to-morrow, Friday evening, at 7 o'clock, when definite steps will be taken as to what will be done. It now looks as though the proposition will be pushed to a successful end, as those at head of the project realize the need of the house and are amply able to finance the enterprise.

Misses Edna Louise Shriver, of Nebo, Ill., and Katie Hemphill, of Nicholasville, are guests of Miss Mary Arnold. Mrs. Joe Gray Reynolds, of Chicago, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Nancy Brown. Mrs. Juliet Rogers has returned from a trip to Cincinnati. Misses Margaret and Joanne Mount were in Danville this week. Miss Jessie Doty is visiting friends in Richmond.

As many have commented on failure of the former city council to go to the river, when constructing the water works, I beg to say that at that time such a move was absolutely impossible. The law only allows certain size cities to assume a certain amount of indebtedness. The construction of the present system, with the lake, took every available cent. To have gone beyond this sum would have invalidated the bonds, and, of course, they would have found no buyer. Now that a big lump of this indebtedness has been paid, it is possible to run a four-inch main to the river, and, by placing an engine there water could be forced into the filter at present plant, and the town supplied with good water all summer. The lake is all right in winter and spring for drinking and stock water, but in mid-summer, is not what it should be. When it is remembered that this is the worst drouth in history, and the lake held out until some 10 days ago, it is proof conclusive that action of the council building it was both wise and timely. We understand the present council will soon take up the question for considering the plan of running a pipe to the river.

Formal application to the State authorities has been made for permission to install the first monorail railroad in the country from Peiham Park to City Island, N. Y., three miles.

The killing of Ex-Senator Edward Ward Carmack at Nashville by Robin Cooper, a young attorney of that city, is deplored not only in Tennessee but all over the country. For many years Senator Carmack had been a prominent figure in politics and journalism and it is indeed a pity that such an able, fearless, clean man should have been shot down in the very prime of life. Mr. Carmack's strictures in the Tennessee was more than Col. Duncan B. Cooper, father of Robin Cooper, could stand and when Carmack and the Coopers met, a duel which cost Carmack his life followed. The dead man shot young Cooper twice but his wounds are not regarded as serious. Col. Cooper was armed but did not use his weapon. Senator Carmack and the elder Cooper had been friends for years and Senator Carmack's first newspaper work was done on a paper owned by him. A coolness between the two began, however, in the famous race for United States Senator between Senator Carmack and Robert L. Taylor when Mr. Cooper championed Mr. Taylor's cause. He was also a warm supporter of Gov. Patterson in his race against Mr. Carmack, in which the latter was defeated. Some six months ago Senator Carmack became editor of the Nashville Tennessean and since has frequently ridiculed Col. Cooper in its editorial columns.

THERE is one mill that the result of the election will close down—"the divorce mill" in South Dakota. Amendments were carried which require a residence of one year in order to make one a legal resident of the State and eligible to apply to the courts for release from matrimonial bonds. Hitherto only six months' residence was necessary. Another provision requires that all divorce cases shall be heard at a regular term of the court. This will wipe out the practice of hearing divorce cases "in chambers" during court terms. The secrecy which has enabled applicants to secure divorces without the general public becoming aware of the fact brought the law into disfavor. The new law goes into effect December 1.

THE government printing office at Washington was a busy place during the campaign. It turned out for the republican and democratic parties 7,418,700 copies of speeches delivered in Congress, surpassing all previous records by 3,000,000 copies. The total weight of campaign speeches printed since the beginning of the Sixtieth Congress exceed 400,000 pounds, or about 14 car loads. The printed sheets would completely cover 45 square acres of ground and if each page could be laid end to end a bicycle track 747 miles long could be obtained.

SENATOR-ELECT W. O. BRADLEY, Congressman John W. Langley, J. B. Bennett and D. C. Edwards and Postmaster Frank Fisher have formed a combination to control Federal patronage in Kentucky. Senator Bradley will, of course, be the most influential of the group, but all have agreed to stand together, and applicants without their indorsement will stand little chance of getting any of the pie.

THE Supreme Court of the United States handed down a decision upholding the Kentucky statute requiring the separation of the races at schools. Justices Harlan and Day dissented. The decision was in the suit brought by Berea College and is a most gratifying one to the people of Kentucky.

IN the next Congress Kentucky Democrats will occupy a prominent position in the House. Both Representatives Ollie M. James, of the First district, and Swager Sherley, of the Fifth, were re-elected for a fourth term. Both have become conspicuous in the House. Representative Ben Johnson, of the Fourth district, and Hon. Harvey Helm, of this district, were re-elected and are regarded as among the ablest men on the Democratic side. In his leadership of the minority the chances are that Mr. Clark will receive as much assistance from the Kentucky delegation as he will from Democrats from any other State.

His "country cousins," the newspaper men of Kentucky, sympathize with Hon. Henry Watterson, editor of the Courier-Journal, in the tragic death of his son, Harvey Watterson, in New York.

MIDDLEBURG.

Most of the corn in this vicinity has been cribbed and the crop is better than was at first thought.

The republicans tried to celebrate their great victory by shooting anvil, but they didn't seem to understand it and didn't do much good.

Suits have been instituted against a number of persons in this vicinity for failure to work on the roads and the cases will be tried at Yosemite on the 18th.

Those who heard the trial of Rufus Taylor for the killing of Harlan Carman, think a life sentence was rather too severe, considering the testimony given in the case.

Forest fires have been raging in many parts of the county for a week or more, doing incalculable damage to fencing, timber, etc. However, the rain Tuesday morning put an end to it, for which we should be thankful.

James Fogle has a pet possum he is fattening for a feast he is going to give his friends and neighbors in a few weeks. Mr. Fogle is quite fond of possum and says they are much better when put up and fattened.

This town used to be noted for its fat men, but Yosemite seems to be in the lead in that line now. That town has five 200-pounders, viz: W. T. Royalty, Q. R. Jones, John Coulter, C. R. Carson and J. T. Short, besides others who are somewhat similarly avoirdupoised. For instance there is Sam Lyon, Joe Elliott, Dr. M. O. Sallee and J. W. Carson, who are not to be grinned at.

The bird law will expire next Sunday. Then it will be lawful to kill quail until Jan. 1st, though perchance many of our local sportsmen have already had "quail on toast." Several of our farmers have posted their lands and will not allow hunting on them, as heretofore. So hunters, especially those from a distance, will do well to get permission before going on the premises of another to hunt.

A prominent young man of Owensboro made a wager of $500 that Taft would not receive the majority of the votes cast in Owensboro. The day preceding the election this young man, in company with a democratic friend, went to Louisville on a pleasure trip. They decided to remain in the Falls City and not come home to vote for Bryan. The result was that Taft carried Owensboro by a majority of two votes. The official count shows that Taft received 1,640 and Bryan 1,638.

Adorina's Fox

In a handsome, large young Jersey Bull, descended from a long and unbroken line of the most noted bulls and cows on the Island of Jersey England and America. His sire is one of the best bulls ever imported and his dam is a show cow that has given 60 pounds of rich milk in one day. If you believe "like begets like" and the likeness of some Ancestor and have a strictly good cow, you should avail yourself of his service. He will be allowed to serve a limited number of approved, registered cows outside of our own herd this year, for a fee of $100. Make engagement before sending cow to be bred. R. E. H. & OTTIE, Telephone #21, Stanford, Ky.

Rheumatism

I have found a tried and tested cure for Rheumatism! Not a remedy that will straighten the distorted limbs of chronic cripples, nor turn bony growths back to flesh again. That is impossible. But I can now surely kill the pains and pangs of this deplorable disease.

In Germany—with a Chemist in the City of Darmstadt—I found the last ingredient with which Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy was made a perfected, dependable prescription. Without that last ingredient, I successfully treated many cases of Rheumatism; but now, at last, I can cure all curable cases of this heretofore much dreaded disease. These sand-like granular wastes, found in Rheumatic Blood, seem to dissolve and pass away under the action of this remedy as freely as does sugar when added to pure water. And then, when dissolved, these poisonous wastes freely pass from the system, and the cause of Rheumatism is gone forever. There is now no real need—no actual excuse to suffer longer with our help. We sell, and in confidence recommend

SAM W. SEVERANCE, of this city, editor of the Market Growers Journal, returned to Louisville from Cleveland, O., where he was instrumental in organizing the Greenhouse Vegetable Growers and Market Gardeners' Association. The concern was organized with a large charter membership, and promises to become one of the largest organizations of its kind in the country. In recognition of his services in bringing about the organization of the association Mr. Severance was paid the honor of becoming the first Secretary of the club. Vegetable growers from all over the country were present at the gathering, and the new organization begins its career with flattering prospects.—Louisville Herald.

HARRIS.—After a long illness, Mrs. J. Randolph Harris breathed her last at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Cash, Tuesday evening. The end came peacefully and just as the shades of night were coming on the spirit of the young wife and mother returned to the God Who gave it. Deceased is survived by her husband and little daughter, her parents, two sisters, and a brother and for them 'unbounded sympathy is felt. May they be given strength to bear their great burden and soon be made to fully realize that their loss is her eternal gain. Mrs. Harris was fully prepared to meet her maker, having many years ago put her trust in Him Who reigns above and since had lived a devoted christian life. She was married 10 years ago to Mr. J. Randolph Harris, of Lancaster, and their union had proven a most happy one. It was blessed by the arrival of a little daughter, who was christened Katherine, and who has been the source of great happiness and comfort to them. How sad it is to think that the little thing will never fully know a mother's love and tender care. But He moves in a mysterious way and will make provision for the motherless. Mrs. Harris frequently talked of dying and admonished those who were at her bedside to so live as to meet her on the other shore, where parting is no more and joy is eternal. A large concourse of friends gathered at the Cash home yesterday morning at 10 o'clock and heard Rev. H. C. Garrison, of Danville, preach a most excellent funeral sermon. The burial followed in Buffalo cemetery and the mound that marks the resting place of the loving wife and tender mother was hidden by beautiful flowers brought by those who knew her and loved her.

BAD NEWS FOR TEACHERS.—County Superintendent Garland Singleton tells us that he will not be able to make the county teachers their second payment to-morrow as he had hoped. State Superintendent Crabbe writes that the sheriffs are slow paying in money and he will have to wait until the treasury fills up a little before he can make a disbursement.

THERE is talk of an extra train being put on this division to run between Louisville and Richmond. In the event it is a go we are told it will leave Louisville at 7 A. M. and pass here about 11:30 P. M. If the new train is put on Nos. 22 and 23, which now do the local work, will be made through trains and will stop only at county seats.

TO MY FRIENDS AND PATRONS.—Owing to the growth of my insurance business it became necessary to seek the assistance of a partner, and I am pleased to be able to state that I have found one in the person of Mr. W. J. Rankin, of our town and county. Mr. Rankin is a most conscientious and pains-taking man and one in whom the insuring public can rely. We expect to engage even more extensively in the insurance business and to add to it that of real estate. Thanking you for the favors of the past and soliciting a reasonable portion of your patronage in the future, I am, yours very gratefully, R. B. Mahony.

The remainder of McGrathiana Stock Farm in Fayette county, 1,050 acres, was bought by W. A. Thomason and Joseph Coons, of Bourbon, at $75.10.

At a meeting held in Lyon county on November 7, the details of which have just been made public, about 500 growers of Lyon adopted a set of resolutions protesting against the manner in which the tobacco pooled with the Planters' Protective Association is being handled. The growers claim there is too much delay in securing their money under the present system, and they declare that unless there is some change at once, they will not sign another obligation to the association as at present constituted.

Report of Fayette County Grand Jury on Disappearance of Student Smith.

"We, the grand jury of Fayette county, Kentucky, respectfully report to the court that so far as we could we have investigated those matters with reference to which we were charged, and have from time to time reported to this court indictments where the facts, in our opinion, justified it.

We have spent a great deal of time in the investigation of the disappearance of Willis E. Smith, a student of the State University. In the course of our investigation we have also tried to run down all newspaper stories and rumors, but in no case have we found any testimony to substantiate such newspaper statements or reports.

In all cases we have traced such stories and reports back to some person who had merely expressed his opinion of the possible solution of the mystery.

We have been able to find no witness who ever saw Smith on the night of his disappearance, after he left his boarding house. We recommend that the investigation be continued by the detective force of the city and county, and the matter be again submitted to the grand jury."

An Autumn Wail.

The breeze is sighing,
The rose is dying,
The football's flying
Along the knoll.
The corn is popping,
The chestnuts dropping.
The squirrels hopping
From hole to hole.
The leaf's red speckles
All shine like freckles;
But
Where are the shekels
To buy the coal?

The cider's beaming,
The bonfire's gleaming,
The pork chops screaming
At rapture's goal.
The landscape shimmers
And glows and glimmers,
And beauty simmers
That glads the soul.
The leaf's red speckles
All shine like freckles;
But
Where are the shekels
To buy the coal?—New York World.

How is your Digestion.

Mrs. Mary Dowling of No. 228 8th Ave., San Francisco, recommends a remedy for stomach trouble. She says: "Gratitude for the wonderful effect of Electric Bitters in a case of acute indigestion, prompts this testimonial. I am fully convinced that for stomach and liver troubles Electric Bitters is the best remedy on the market to-day." This great tonic and alternative medicine invigorates the system, purifies the blood and is especially helpful in all forms of female weakness. 50c. at Penny's Drug Store.

Of all the bores he was the limit.

"Do you know," he drawled, "I sometimes feel the call of the polar regions. Weally, I think I'd like to join a relief expedition. What do you think of it, Miss Wose?"

"Well, Reggy," responded the weary girl, with a yawn, "it certainly would be a relief to some of your acquaintances."

And without a word he took his hat and cane and departed.—Chicago Daily News.
